

Dobierz do odpowiednich kategorii wyrazy przenosząc je w puste pola.

fry peel a plate roast boil a frying pan stir grill poach melt mix a bowl slice bake
a saucepan pour add scales grate cut an oven mash a dish weigh chop

Preparing the food:

Putting ingredients together:

Methods of cooking:

Kitchen equipment:

Przeczytaj tekst i wybierz zdanie, które jest jego podsumowaniem.

Cooking programmes are very popular on British TV, but (1)  of them are more interesting than others. One of the best programmes is Masterchef Professionals. Chefs who usually work in ordinary restaurants compete for the title. They (2)  fantastic meals for top chefs and go and work in Michelin-starred restaurants. Young Masterchef is similar and tries to (3)  the most talented young chef in Britain. Both programmes are great entertainment.

- A The text is about young people and cooking.
- B The text is about a particular type of TV programme.
- C The text is about the number of chefs in Britain.

Przeczytaj tekst. Spośród wyrazów w ramkach wybierz właściwe poprawne pod względem gramatycznym i leksykalnym uzupełnienie luk 1-3. Przenieś wyrazy w poprawne pola. Jeden z nich nie pasuje do żadnej luki, umieść go w niebieskim polu po prawej stronie.

A advantages	B fame	C interested	D keen
E popularity	F recommendations

Supermarkets are full of ready-meals and there are hundreds of fast food restaurants all over Britain. But now, people are becoming more (1)  in preparing their own food. This is partly because there is a rise in the (2)  of cooking programmes. It's also because ready meals are generally expensive. Overall, cooking your own food has many (3) . It's tastier, it's healthier and it's more fun.

