

A Choose the correct indefinite pronouns. Then ask and answer the questions in pairs.

- 1 Have you ever eaten nothing / anything unusual on holiday?
- 2 If you could go on an expedition anywhere / somewhere in the whole world, where would you go?
- 3 Do you know anyone / no one who works in the travel industry?
- 4 If you could change something / nothing about your hometown, what would it be?
- 5 Do you enjoy spending holidays lying on a beach doing anything / nothing?
- 6 Would you rather go abroad on holiday or anywhere / somewhere in your country?
- 7 If you crashed your car into a parked car and anybody / nobody saw, what would you do?

B Complete the two dialogues with indefinite pronouns.

Jade Hi, Carl. <sup>1</sup>_____ told me you were on holiday last week. Did you go away <sup>2</sup>_____?

Carl Yeah, but <sup>3</sup>_____ exciting. We went to this tiny village in Wales that <sup>4</sup>_____ has ever heard of.

Jade Oh, right. How come you went there?

Carl Dad had read <sup>5</sup>_____ about it in a travel magazine and thought it sounded interesting.

Jade And was it?

Carl No, it was dead boring. There was <sup>6</sup>_____ to see or do and the weather was dreadful.

Jade Shame. Hopefully you'll get to go <sup>7</sup>_____ better on your next holiday.

Linda You look annoyed, Sharon. Is <sup>8</sup>_____ wrong?

Sharon <sup>9</sup>_____ crashed into the back of my car on my way home last night and then drove off without stopping.

Linda That's terrible. Did <sup>10</sup>_____ see it happen?

Sharon No, it was late and there was <sup>11</sup>_____ around.

Linda Did you report it to the police?

Sharon Yes, although I had almost <sup>12</sup>_____ to tell them. I didn't get the licence plate number and the driver could have been <sup>13</sup>_____!

Linda Come on, let's go to the café. I'll buy you <sup>14</sup>_____ nice to cheer you up!