

READING AND USE OF ENGLISH

WORD FORMATION

7 QUALITIES OF THE BEST MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKERS

Here are seven traits, qualities, and characteristics that some of the best motivational speakers have.

1. THEY TELL GREAT STORIES.

The ability to tell a great story is one of the core qualities that a motivational speaker needs to help add value to the lives of 1) _____ (LISTEN). Motivational speakers tell original stories to provide the audience with fresh and relevant information.

More importantly, the best motivational speakers paint a picture that lets the audience put themselves into the story so they can feel the emotions to understand the lesson better.

2. THEY ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT WHAT THEY DO.

Great speakers are often passionate about wanting to change others for the 2) _____ (GOOD), and the amount of passion a speaker has translated into their presentation. The audience can tell when a speaker is passionate about their subject matter because it will reflect in the speaker's enthusiasm and 3) _____ (EXCITING) when they perform.

Passion is 4) _____ (INFECT), and when a great speaker is passionate, it inspires the audience to cultivate passion as well.

3. THEY ARE CONFIDENT.

It is essential that motivational speakers have confidence in themselves and in their message.

Audience members can tell when speakers are nervous or unsure about what they are doing or saying. This automatically causes the audience to doubt the speaker, and it may 5) _____ (VALID) the message.

Great speakers have confidence that reflects in their speech and gestures while they are on stage, which in turn inspires confidence in the audience. It helps to engage them and makes them believe in what the speaker is saying.

4. THEY ARE SELF-AWARE.

A great motivational speaker understands who they are and knows exactly what they stand for. They are also aware of their 6) _____ (STRONG) and weaknesses.

5. THEY SHOW EMPATHY.

A defining mark of a great motivational speaker is their ability to put themselves in the shoes of those in their audience. They do their best to understand their audience's motivation, fears, hopes, challenges, and worries.

This helps them tailor their speech to appeal to and inspire their audience. 7) _____ (EMPATHY) speakers are also individuals who have gone through what they talk about.

They have been where the audience is, and they understand what that is like, which helps make a pure connection with them.

6. THEY POSSESS KNOWLEDGE.

Any motivational speaker must remain up to date and 8) _____ (KNOWLEDGE) in their area of expertise. Motivational speakers aren't born; they are made.

This means that they must grow and learn to become an expert with great knowledge and insight to share with others.

7. THEY HAVE A SENSE OF HUMOR.

Motivational speeches tend to discuss serious topics, and great speakers know how to add fun anecdotes or jokes when it is appropriate to do so.

Humor often makes a speech more 9) _____ (MEMORY). Plus, it enthralls listeners, and everyone likes someone with a good sense of humor.

Source: <https://www.bluleadz.com/blog/top-inspirational-speeches>