A vertical timeline illustrating the historical milestones of the Malaysian Federal Constitution. The timeline is represented by a central vertical axis with four colored boxes (orange, grey, yellow, and blue) containing text, and four yellow boxes at the bottom representing the years 1957, 1977, 1946, and 1948. The boxes are connected by arrows pointing downwards, indicating a chronological sequence. The text in the boxes describes the process of drafting and adopting the constitution, from the initial discussions in the 1940s to the final adoption in 1957.
