

Name _____ Date _____

Quiz: A Summer's Reading – Vocabulary part 2

Fill in 10 blanks with words from the word bank: Pay attention to spelling and grammar

להסס	גבוך	להעריך	לשרוק	להעריך, לכבד מישהו	דמי כיס
להבין, לנחש	מידי פעם	להודות	לדלג על	כטובה	השכלה

George (1) _____ met Mr. Cattanzara when he wandered in the neighborhood at night. George liked Mr. Cattanzara because he was kind to him and gave him money to buy lemon ice when he was a kid. George also (2) _____ because he thought Mr. Cattanzara was more intelligent than the other people in the neighborhood. He knew Mr. Cattanzara read the New York Times every night from cover to cover. One night when they met, Mr. Cattanzara asked George what he was doing in the summer. George (3) _____ -- he didn't know what to answer because he was ashamed to (4) _____ that he wasn't doing anything. He told Mr. Cattanzara he was reading a lot to get some (5) _____. Mr. Cattanzara was interested and asked what he was reading. George was (6) _____ so he continued with his lie and said he had a list of 100 books and he was going to read them this summer. Mr. Cattanzara was impressed and (7) _____ through his teeth to show it. A few nights later the shoemaker, stopped George to say he was a good boy and George (8) _____ that Mr. Cattanzara had told him about the books he was reading. George saw more people in the neighborhood smile at him kindly and he began to feel better about himself and the neighborhood. George discovered that Sophie and his father also knew about the books. Sophie gave him a dollar a week for (9) _____ and George (10) _____ that he had a little more money to spend. He began to clean the house every day (11) _____ to Sophie. He enjoyed everything more now that he felt good about himself and was in such a good mood that he (12) _____ going to the park at night.