

Ex 1: Filling the blank

Once upon a time in _____, there was a scarecrow. He stood in a _____ and looked like a man. He _____ a real man, the scarecrow was made of _____. The scarecrow's _____ was an old _____, his face was painted with two _____ and a nose and a _____ mouth. He didn't have _____, but he did have a _____, it was _____ and made of felt. A _____ used to wear, long ago. His clothes had come from the farmer too: a long _____ with lots of _____. An old pair of _____ with holes in the legs. A worn-out leather _____ with a rusty buckle. A red scarf with white _____. The scarecrow didn't have _____ because he didn't have _____.
