

4 Write A if the underlined verb form is active, and P if it is passive.

- P 1. Moche society around San José de Moro was ruled by women.
- _____ 2. Interesting objects were discovered in the tomb.
- _____ 3. Archaeologists found a silver cup.
- _____ 4. The priestess was buried in a special way.
- _____ 5. She wore a simple necklace of local stones.
- _____ 6. Several discoveries were made in Peru.
- _____ 7. Today's lecture on Moche society was canceled.
- _____ 8. The discovery of the priestess has changed the way we think about the Moche.
- _____ 9. Online videos about archaeology are watched by a lot of people.
- _____ 10. Major new discoveries will be reported in the news.

REAL ENGLISH

Use the passive voice to what happened rather than what performed the action.

*A cup was found on the table.
The plans weren't under the chair.*

5 Circle the correct form of the verbs to complete the article.

Egypt is full of incredible ancient sites, but the most famous is the tomb of King Tutankhamun (King Tut). He (1) ruled / was ruled Egypt from around 1332 B.C.–1323 B.C. Until his tomb (2) discovered / was discovered in 1922, many details about his life (3) didn't know / weren't known. King Tut's tomb (4) found / was found in the Valley of the Kings by archaeologist Howard Carter. Carter (5) believed / was believed that Tut's tomb had to be in the area because of other nearby discoveries. When he (6) found / was found a door, he (7) knew / was known something important was behind it. Photos (8) took / were taken of the door before it (9) removed / was removed. Behind the door, Carter and his team (10) found / were found hundreds of gold objects, as well as King Tut's preserved body, or mummy.

▲ Burial mask