

A

She lives next door and she's always been really important in my life. When we _____ little and my mum was working she _____ look after us. She'd tell us stories about her childhood. It was like listening to fairy stories, life was so different when she was a child. In her kitchen she _____ keep a special dish with sweets for us, and she was always baking cakes and pies.

Now she doesn't bake so much. She _____ eating more healthily in her old age, salads and vegetables and things. It's funny how she _____. She also goes to this special gym class for old people, it's amazing. I don't see her so often now, but she's always the same _____ however much her lifestyle changes.

C

We _____ each other _____ we were five and we've always got on really well. Well, apart from that time when we _____ because we both liked the same boy. But he went off with Heather Jenkins, so we made friends again quite quickly! We both like the same kind of music and going dancing at the weekend, and when we were _____ we went out on our bikes together. At school we're _____ different things. I'm good at languages and Laura's good at maths. That's good though - it means that we can help _____ with our homework. Next year I'm probably going to study in London and she's going to Manchester, but I'm _____ our relationship won't change.