- Soak your feet in cold water.
- Put a cool cloth on your feet.
- Take pain medication.
- Go to the emergency room for a really bad sunburn.

On the right side of the text, there is an illustration of two feet with red sunburned skin.
