Name _____ Classroom _____

Parts of the String Instruments

Across

2. The pointed part of the bow
5. A small piece of round wood inside the instrument
6. A long narrow piece of wood where your fingers are placed to create notes
9. The top part of an instrument that looks like a snail.
11. The part of the bow which produces a sound
13. A small circular part at the bottom of a violin or viola
15. The narrow area between the scroll and the body of the instrument
16. A pointed adjustable part on cellos and basses
17. The small rectangular par of a bow that sometimes has an "eye"

Down

1. The ridge at the top of the fingerboard
3. These are turned to tune the strings
4. A part where sound waves can enter to be amplified
6. A small metal part on the bow frog
7. A part used to attach the strings to the bottom of the instrument
8. A thin piece of wood which holds the strings up
10. A place to rest your "chin" on the violin or viola
12. Four parts that are plucked or bowed to create sound
14. Long skinny wooden part of the bow

LIVEWORKSHEETS