Watch the video and study the topic. Than read the statements, find the mistakes and correct them, fill in the information neccessary:

1. President of the USA is elected every 5 years.
2. The voting system in the USA is known as Electoral congress system.
3. It is very simple system of direct elections.
4. The congress limits the President to just four, 2 years terms.
5. US President forms the Cabinet from the members of the Senate.
6. The power to create a law in the USA is only given to the President.
7. In the USA, President is not the head of state.
8. The Congress and the Senate are the same thing.
9. The Prime Minister in the USA lives in the White House.
10. Besides resignation, there is no other way for the President of the USA to leave the office.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. In the UK the representatives are elected indirectly by citizens from their commonwealth every 4 years.

12. There are 650 commons throughout the USA , England, London, Ireland.

13. All the elected representatives make up a Cabinet in the UK.

14. In the UK, the leader of the winning political party in General elections becomes Prime Minister.

15. UK Prime Minister forms the Cabinet from the House of Commons members.

16. Laws in the UK are made and shaped only but upper chamber of the Parliament.

17. UK´s Parliament consists of two chambers – upper – House of Commons and lower – House of Lords.

18. In the UK, the official head of the state is the Prime Minister.

19. The Monarch resides in Buckingham Palace, in Windsor, and Prime Minister lives at 12 Downing street.

20. The Prime Minister of The UK can not resign, he can only be impeached and removed from the office.

LIVEWORKSHEETS