

THE ECONOMY AND THE WORLD OF FINANCE – Present simple

Afirmative	Negative	Interrogative
• I walk • You walk • He walks • She walks • It walks • We walk • You walk • They walk	• I don't walk • You don't walk • He doesn't walk • She doesn't walk • It doesn't walk • We don't walk • You don't walk • They don't walk	• Do I walk? • Do you walk? • Does he walk? • Does she walk? • Does it walk? • Do we walk? • Do you walk? • Do they walk?

Complete the questions with the missing auxiliary. Then, complete the answers with the correct present simple form of the verbs in brackets.

- Which _____ the two key principles of the economy?
They _____ (BE) supply and demand.
- _____ the relationship between supply and demand important?
Yes, it _____ (BE).
- What _____ people need to do business?
They _____ (NEED) money.
- When a customer borrows money from a bank, what _____ he have to pay?
He _____ (HAVE) to pay interest until he _____ (PAY) the money back.
- What kind of loan _____ we choose to buy a house?
We _____ (CHOOSE) a mortgage.
- _____ investment in shares of stock a good idea?
Yes, it _____ (BE). My brother usually _____ (BUY) shares and he _____ (OWN) a portion of different companies.
- When _____ you make a loss?
When the company _____ (NOT DO) well.