How You Became a Happy Yeti

Yesterday was a rainy day. You stayed inside your house. The sky was cloudy and it was windy. You felt a bit shy to go outside. Instead, you did some yoga at home. It made you feel happy and relaxed. You wore your yellow yoga pants and practiced different poses. You did it happily, knowing that it's good for your body and mind.

July Blooms

In your yard, you have a big, shiny tree. It's been there for many years. Every July, it blooms with beautiful yellow flowers. It makes your yard look even more colorful. You love spending time there. Sometimes, you sit under the tree and read a book. Other times, you play games with your friends. It's a truly special place for you.

Yahoo the Fluffy Yeti

You have a funny pet named 'Yahoo'. It's a small, fluffy yeti. Yahoo loves to play and make funny noises. Sometimes, it jumps around the house and yells happily. It's always there when you feel sad. Yesterday, you felt a bit dry, so you wanted to try a new recipe. You made a tasty drink and enjoyed it together with Yahoo.
