

UNIT 9: THE MIDDLE AGES AND THE MODERN AGE

1. Write T or F. Si es verdadero escribe T si es falso escribe F.

Sources of historical information can be oral or written. ____

It is important to protect the cultural heritage of a place. ____

The Middle Ages started in 474, with the fall of the Roman Empire, and ended in 1492, when America was discovered. ____

The Middle Ages have two periods: the Early Middle Ages and the Late Middle Ages. ____

In the Middle Ages the society was feudal. ____

The Visigoths created a kingdom in the Iberian Peninsula and named it Al-Andalus. ____

Islamic armies gradually reconquered the territory from the Christians until 1492. ____

The modern Age begin in 1492 with the French Revolution and ended in 1789 when America was discovered. ____

In the Modern Age the printing press was invented, and many Europeans explored new territories in other continents. ____

In the Modern Age society was divided into the privileged and non-privileged classes. ____

In the Modern Age nobility was more powerful than monarchs and some members of the bourgeoisie. ____

From a cultural point of view, we divide the Modern Age into two periods: the Renaissance and the Enlightenment. ____

Carlos I and Felipe II were the descendants of the Catholic Monarchs. ____

In Spain in the 17th century there was a big economic crisis and the monarchs lost power. ____

In Spain during the 10th century the monarchs had absolute power. ____

At the end of the Modern Age in Spain the monarchs made some reforms that modernised their countries. ____

UNIT 9: THE MIDDLE AGES AND THE MODERN AGE

2. Cultural heritage. Complete with TANGIBLE - INTANGIBLE - NATURAL

BUILDINGS
TRADITIONS
LANGUAGE
MONUMENTS
BIODIVERSITY
TRADITIONAL DANCE
LANDSCAPES

3. Feudal society. Complete with PRIVILEGED - NON-PRIVILEGED

PEASANTS
BOURGEOISIE
CLERGY
NOBLES

4. Architectural style. Complete with ROMANESQUE - GOTHIC

Well done!

