

HALLUCINOGENS AND INHALANTS INTERACTIVE WORKSHEET

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate words to complete the sentences about hallucinogens and inhalants.

Word Bank: sudden sniffing death syndrome, hallucinogens, dissociative, lysergic acid diethylamide, aerosols, psilocybin, peyote, irreversible, intoxicating, short-term effects

1. _____ are a class of drugs that alter a person's thoughts, perceptions, and feelings, leading to hallucinations and sensory distortions.
2. LSD, also known as _____, is a potent hallucinogenic drug that can cause intense visual hallucinations and changes in perception.
3. The active compound in magic mushrooms, called _____, is a hallucinogen that can induce hallucinations, altered perception of time, and changes in mood.
4. Inhalants are substances that are inhaled to produce _____ effects, but they can also lead to serious health consequences.
5. Common types of inhalants include volatile solvents (such as glue and nail polish remover), _____ (such as sprays and air fresheners), and gasses (such as nitrous oxide or "laughing gas").
6. Inhalant abuse can cause _____, such as dizziness, confusion, nausea, and headaches.
7. Prolonged use of inhalants can lead to _____ damage, affecting the brain, liver, kidneys, and other organs.
8. _____ is a common hallucinogenic plant that contains the psychoactive compound called mescaline.
9. The use of hallucinogens can result in _____ experiences, where the user feels disconnected from their body and reality.
10. Inhalant abuse is particularly dangerous because it can lead to _____, which is a life-threatening condition where the heart beats irregularly and rapidly.