

Practicing Pronouns Types in Daniel's Story

Read the following passage from page 5 of the story, Daniel's Story by Carol Matas:

“Standing beside my father are his three brothers: Leo, who came from Berlin with his family; Walter and Aaron, and their wives. Sitting on the floor are their children, three per family, most around my age or younger. I remember as that photo was being taken, Uncle Walter and Father were fighting, talking back and forth with clenched teeth so as not to ruin the picture.”

From the quote, tell what type of pronoun each of the following is depending on how it is used in the sentence.
