

SCIENCE 6 – Revolutions and political concepts

1- Where did most of the people live before the industrial revolution?

2.- Where did they usually work before the Industrial Revolution?

3.- Which was the main source of energy after the invention of the steam engine?

4.- Complete:

- The big factories were built in _____.
- New machinery was powered by _____.
- People began to migrate from _____ areas to _____ cities to look for _____.
- These changes meant that the gap between _____ and _____ people widened.
- Industry changed a lot because of the introduction of new techniques, _____ and methods of _____.
- _____ became the main source of fuel and _____ mining became an important industry.
- As the population increased, the demand of _____ grew.

- In factories, working conditions were very _____ during the 19th century.

5.- Explain the working conditions during the Industrial Revolution:

6.- When did the French Revolution started?

7.- Which ones were the three social groups that France was divided into?

_____, _____, _____.

8.- What is a monarchy?

9.- When people vote for their government that is a _____

10.- Are they possible?

- A country that is a monarchy and a democracy _____
- A country that is a republic and a monarchy _____
- A country that is a democracy and a republic _____

11.- Who rules the country in an absolute monarchy?

- The king and the Parliament
- The king with the help of the president.
- The king has all the power.