

NAME:

DATE:

Verb 'to be' (Positive)

Read the sentences below and fill in the blank space with am, are, or is.

1. I (        ) a student.
2. He (        ) hungry.
3. She (        ) happy.
4. We (        ) late.
5. They (        ) from England.
6. It (        ) very cold today.
7. She (        ) in the living room.
8. We (        ) playing computer games.
9. He (        ) watching TV.
10. I (        ) not feeling well.
11. It (        ) a tiger.
12. I (        ) 24 years old.
13. She (        ) from France.
14. We (        ) friends.
15. You (        ) a teacher.
16. He (        ) late.
17. I (        ) very thirsty.
18. She (        ) Spanish.
19. It (        ) so hot.
20. Chris (        ) 20 today.

NAME:

DATE:

Verb 'to be' (Negative)

Change the sentences below into the negative form.

Positive	Negative
I am a student.	I am not a student.
He is hungry.
She is happy.
We are late.
They are from England.
It is very cold today.
She is in the living room.
We are playing computer games.
He is watching TV.
I am not feeling well.
It is a tiger.
I am 24 years old.
She is from France.
We are friends.

NAME:

DATE:

Verb 'to be': Matching

Match the questions to the correct answers.

Are you happy?

Is this a pencil?

Is your mom a teacher?

Are you married?

Am I slow?

Is Chris good at soccer?

Is Sally a good singer?

Are you thirsty?

Is that a tiger?

Are they playing computer games?

Yes, it is.

Yes, she's a great singer.

No it's not. It's a lion.

No, I am not. I am sad.

No you're not. You are fast.

Yes, they are.

No, she isn't. She's a doctor.

Yes, he is.

Yes, I am.

No, I'm not.