English for children

Listen to the conversation and fill in the blanks

Person A: What time do you usually wake up the morning?
Person B: I wake up AM.
Person A: Wow, that's early. What do you do after you wake up?
Person B: I take a and .
Then, I leave for work AM.
Person A: long does it take you to get to ?
Person B: It takes me about minutes to get there by .
Person A: do you finish ?
Person B: , but I have to stay later if there's a deadline.
Person A: after ?
Person B: go to the gym for hour or so, and then go and cook .
Person A: ?
Person B: at around .

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

Write the correct preposition.

- I have a meeting 2 PM.
- She arrived in New York Monday.
- I woke up 6 AM this morning.
- He will be back 9 PM.
- The concert starts 8 PM sharp.
- We're having a party Saturday night.
- She will be gone for a month starting July.
- They visited Paris the summer.
- The store is open from 9 AM 5 PM.
- He's been living Canada 2015.
- I'll meet you the park after lunch.
- The train departs 10:30 AM every day.
- She celebrated her birthday with friends the weekend

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS