More Adverbs That Compare
Assessment 2

REMEMBER THE RULES

• Longer adverbs and adverbs that end in —/y can be used with the words more and most to form comparisons.

• Use more to compare two actions. Use most to compare more than two actions.

Jennifer competed more energetically than Ali.
Among all the runners, Deanna competed most energetically.

A. Write the verb then, the complete adverb.

1. Of all students, Sean approaches school most seriously.

Verb _____ adverb _____

2. Sean studies more diligently than his brother.

Verb _____ adverb _____

3. He answers test questions more successfully than others do.

Verb _____ adverb _____

4. Krista is treated more warmly by her friends than her tennis coach.

Verb _____ adverb _____

5. Krista should practice tennis more regularly than she has been.

Verb _____ adverb _____

B. Rewrite each sentence using the correct form of the adverb.

6. Of all members on the cross country team, Sara wins (more, most) regularly.

_____

7. Sara runs (more, most) willingly at practice than her friend does.

_____

8. Her new running shoes fit (more, most) comfortably than her old ones.

_____

9. She reached the finish line (more, most) quickly this time than last week.

_____

10. Her dad cheered for her (more, most) enthusiastically of all.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS