

VOCABULARY TEST

I. Choose the best words from A-D to fill in the blank

1. Workers regard thelevel of competition from low-wage workers abroad as a threat to their livelihood.
 - A. reinforcement
 - B. Nonpathogenic
 - C. unprecedented
 - D. retaliatory
2. A job isif both the money-related factors (salary, etc.) and non-money-related factors (location, corporate culture) are satisfying.
 - A. postulate
 - B. rebound
 - C. antiquity
 - D. fruitful
3. A job-seeker should recognize her comparative advantages when looking for a job.
 - A. savvy
 - B. nature
 - C. rally
 - D. generic
4. Comparative advantages theory recognizesof trade that haven't been dealt with earlier.
 - A. subtleties
 - B. antiquity
 - C. sphere
 - D. buoy
5. When a country has protectionist restrictions like tariff and import quota, other countries will have their ownlaws.
 - A. retaliatory
 - B. infiltrate
 - C. steadfastly
 - D. safeguard
6. The tariff a series of punishments and retaliatory actions from US trading partners.
 - A. rebound
 - B. bona fide
 - C. set off
 - D. slanted
7. While live attenuated vaccines are quite, inactivated vaccines deliver a much weaker immune system response
 - A. potent
 - B. nature
 - C. sphere
 - D. postulate

8. The whole procedure takes perhaps 60 to 90 seconds, if the child
A. rising tide
B. bona fide
C. hold still
D. antiquity
9. The virus has been weakened to the point of being,, disarmed.
A. inoculate
B. paralysis
C. in effect
D. bona fide
10. Sports may help warlike behavior.
A. sphere
B. concede
C. fluid
D. curb
11. It is not her absolute skills but some not common abilities that help a job-seeker
.....
A. stand above the crowd
B. corporate activity
C. steadfastly
D. postulate
12. Doctors still face obstacles in regions of the world plagued by violence, poverty, and
..... polio.
A. endemic
B. render
C. potent
D. generic
13. Self-defining memories are the coding of a person
A. episodic
B. counterintuitive
C. autobiographical
D. lateral thinking
14. Economists confirm that free trade benefits all consumers and boosts financial prosperity worldwide
A. allocation
B. steadfastly
C. retaliatory
D. exposition
15. Go teaches a manner of strategic thinking that might be useful in the of business.
A. savvy
B. nature
C. sphere
D. set off

16. Courage,, and team spirit are characteristics needed in participants of both sports and war.
- discipline
 - postulate
 - infiltrate
 - fruitful
17. A business may try to consumers against international competition. But in the end, the battle is probably lost.
- tackle
 - imbue
 - retaliatory
 - rally
18. The vaccines that help bacterial illnesses contain toxoids
- hold still
 - set off
 - ward off
 - bona fide
19. Measles vaccine causes lasting physical for almost no one
- flagging
 - tubular
 - trauma
 - ardent
20. In 1988 South Korea hosted the Olympic Games for the of the division of territory between South Korea and North Korea
- Infiltrate
 - by and large
 - reinforcement
 - retaliatory

II. Match the following words from A-H with sentences from 1-10

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| A. antiquity | F. slanted |
| B. exploit | G. disparate |
| C. in effect | H. flagging |
| D. rebound | I. allocation |
| E. ward off | J. safeguard |

- Since 2000, there have been several major outbreaks of the illness due to vaccination rates.
- Some of the games of are still popular in the modern-day Olympics.
- Go board-placement strategy is similar to resource
- The virus has been weakened to the point of being,, disarmed.
- Athletics serve to unite peoples within a nation.
- The vaccines that help bacterial illnesses contain toxoids
- The USA would haveafter a couples of year if it had been open to free trade.

8. Vaccines work to individuals against illness
9. At the tip is the bevel, a crosscut that forms the sharp end of the needle.
10. If a country recognizes andits comparative advantages, it can enjoy fast growth.