William Shakespeare

- A Shakespeare was born in Stratford-Upon-Avon, a small town in England, in 1564. He went to school there, but he didn't go to university - his family wasn't rich, and university was expensive in those days.
- B Shakespeare got married when he was only eighteen. About ten years later, he left Stratford and travelled to London: he wanted to be an actor, and all the important theatres were in London.
- C Shakespeare's wife and children stayed in Stratford, but he sometimes visited them. Stratford was 150 kilometres from London, and the journey took two days. There weren't any cars or trains in those days; people rode on horses or walked.
- D Shakespeare soon became interested in writing. When he was thirty, he wrote Romeo and Juliet. Everybody loved it! Many of his plays were very popular. He made a lot of money, and when he was about thirty-five he bought a big house in Stratford for his family.
- E When he was about fifty, Shakespeare came back to Stratford to live with his family. He died a few years later.
