

Click on the characteristics that best describe the first settlements

They lived in caves.

They built hotels and museums.

They invented the train.

They made tools from wood and stone.

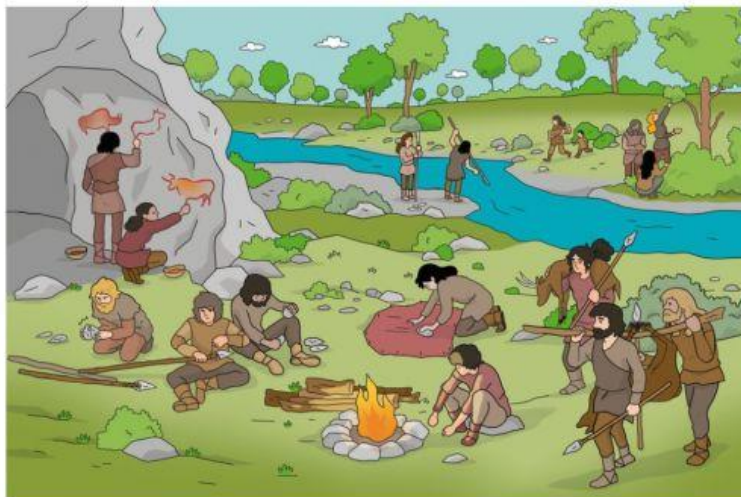

Caves were decorated with animal paintings.

There was a castle close to the village.

They formed tribes.

They fished.

They used animal skins for clothes.

They were farmers.

There were many factories.

They discovered fire.

They ate fruits and berries.

They were hunters.

They were gatherers.