

MRS C GREN

M =

All or some of the organism can independently.

R =

This is the chemical process of converting glucose from food and oxygen into .

S =

The organism responds to in its environment .

C =

If something is not made up of then it is .

G =

This is the process of getting or more complex over time.

R =

The organism is able to produce .

E =

The cells and organisms remove products from themselves.

N =

This means the organism takes in .