The following text is for number 1-9.

My brother, sisters and I went to spend our holiday in Bali. Each of us should ride the car at least three hours. It was the last week of December 2008. We Left Solo on Saturday afternoon. We also didn't forget to bring our camera. On Sunday morning we arrived in Gillimanuk. We dropped for one day at my uncle's house. They had prepared breakfast when we arrived at his house. We had rice and "ayam betutu"; really it was very hot but delicious.

On Monday we went to Denpasar Firstly we visited "Sanur" Beach. As it was still early in the morning we could see the sunrise. We also prayed some moment on the sand then we looked for a hotel because we have no relative who stayed there.

On that day we also visited "Kuta" Beach, Garuda Wisnu Kencana" and also "Sukawati" Market. We had our lunch on the way when we felt hungry. At night we also enjoyed "Barong" Dance. Something that we never forgot was taking pictures at any tourist resort.

One the last day we visited "Sangeh". Where we could see many monkey. Many of them are still wild and they sometimes bite visitor, from here we went straight to "Bedugul" lake, we went around it by a small boat to see some temples at the other side. Unfortunately, it was raining so hard that we all so wet. We changed our clothes there because we could also buy clothes at the shop near the lake. Really it was so wonderful that I promise I want to visit Bali again next time.

Text for number 10 to 12 !

Last week, I and my family went to Yogyakarta. We arrived there on wednesday in the afternoon. On Thursday, visited the temples in Prambanan. There are three big temples, the Brahmmana, Syiwa and Wisnu temples. They are really amazing. We visited only Brahmmana and Syiwa temples, because Wisnu temple is being renovated.

On Friday morning we went to Yogya Kraton. We spent about two hours there. We were lucky because we were led by a smart and friendly guide. Then we continued our journey to Borobudur. We arrived there at four p.m. At 5 p.m. we heard the announcement that Borobudur gate would be closed. In the evening we left for Jakarta by wisata bus.

This text for question 19 to 22 !

Once upon a time there live as neighbors, a bear and a rabbit. The rabbit was a good shot and the bear, being very clumsy, could not use an arrow to a good advantage.

The bear was very unkind to the rabbit. Every morning, the bear would call over to the rabbit and ask the rabbit to take his bow and arrows and come with the bear to the other side of the hill.

The rabbit, fearing to arouse the bear's anger by refusing, consented, and went with the bear. The rabbit shot enough buffalo to satisfy the bear's family. Indeed, he shot and killed so many that there was still lots of meat left after the bear and his family had loaded themselves and packed all they could carry home.

However, the bear was so greedy and evil that he didn't allow the rabbit to get any of the meat. The poor rabbit could not even taste the blood from the butchering, as the bear would throw earth on the bloods and dry it up. The poor rabbit would have to go home hungry after his hard days work.

The bear was the father of five children. The youngest boy was very kind to the rabbit. The youngest bear would take the meat outside and pretend to play ball with it, kicking it toward the rabbit's house, and when he got close to the door he would give the meat such a great kick that it would fly into the rabbit's house. In this way the poor rabbit would get his meal unknown to the papa bear.
