

My Furry Friend

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Alex. He had a special companion, a pet dog named Theo. Theo was a cute and playful furry puppy.

Every morning, Alex would wake up to the sound of Theo wagging his fluffy tail. They would go for one of their daily walks in the park together. Theo loved chasing balls and playing fetch.

In the afternoons, Alex would teach Theo exciting new tricks. Theo quickly learned how to sit, shake hands, and even roll over. Alex was very proud of his clever dog.

At night, Theo would sleep at the foot of Alex's bed, that is very comfortable. He was always there to keep Alex company and protect him.

Alex and Theo were the best of friends. They spent lots of time together, exploring new adventures and enjoying wonderful moments of fun.

The end.

- 1. Underline all the adjectives that you see in the text and put them here:

--	--

2. What do you believe that the word WAG (in the text: wagging) means?

HIDE

SHAKE

HIT

3. Answer the questions.

What DOESN'T Theo learned to do?

Jump

Sit

Shake hand

Where does Theo sleep?

Theo's kennel

Theo's bed

Alex's bed

How often do they go for a walk?

Monthly

Weekly

Daily

When do Theo and Alex play with a fetch

In the morning

In the afternoon

At night