

WILL OR GOING TO?

WB 21/4

Complete the dialogue. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

- Emma: I hope it'll be a good party.
- John: Yes. We're all going to help (help) Annie. I (be) the DJ.
- Emma: What? You're kidding!
- John: No, I'm not. The DJ's ill. We (borrow) his equipment and I (put) the records on. But I don't like his music.
- Emma: I (bring) some CDs. I've got the new One Direction CD.
- John: Thanks.
- Emma: And I (text) Joey to bring some, too. He's got loads of great CDs.
- John: That's brilliant. What time are you going?
- Emma: I'll be there early. I (decorate) the room with Sally.
- John: She's going to make a birthday cake for Annie. It's a surprise.
- Emma: That's good. Right. I'm really thirsty now.
- John: OK. I (get) you a drink.
