ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS:

Did you know that?

Read

Five thousand (5,000) years ago, the ancient Egyptians had their home at the mouth of the Nile River in the Mediterranean Sea. The ancient Egyptians believed in more than 2,000 gods. The ancient Egyptians believed in curses, omens and magical powers, all of which were an important part of their daily life and religion.

The ancient Egyptians also believed in life after death. A popular family outing was to visit the family tomb loaded with funerary objects, things they might need in the afterlife to make their eternity comfortable and fun. The ancient Egyptians believed that after you die, your Ka, your spirit, flies away to enjoy perfect, endless days along the magical Nile River.

The ancient Egyptians built the famous pyramids; these constructions were used as tombs. For the ancient Egyptians, the most important person within the social classes was the Pharaoh.
