READING: an email

1. Read the following email and put the paragraphs in order.

New Message

To Angy Cc Bcc

☐ Finally I finished third, so I'm very happy. Also, the awards ceremony was at the shopping centre, so I went there for dinner with my family (at the restaurant in front of the pharmacy). It's been a super cool week!

☐ Hi!
How are you doing? I hope it's going well! I have to tell you a lot of things, but the most important thing... I ran my first triathlon!

☐ I guess you know this already, but on the last part of the race we have to ride a bike. I jumped on, because I wanted to catch up with my brother. We had to get to Hamilton Park (the one next to the church), so I had to turn right, then left, crossed through Taganana Street to the bridge and went past the cafe you like so much.

☐ The competition was in the village, and as my brother signed up I wanted to try it too. We had been training for months, because it's a very hard race, but in the end it was worth it. I had to do a lot of sport! The race started in the main square, and we had to run through the town until we got to the swimming pool. At the pool we had to change quickly and then we swam there and back, and when we got out... we ran to the bike!

☐ How about you? Anything new? You have to tell me everything!
See you soon!
Mary.

☐ Almost at the end, there was a left turn which was super tight, but... I was able to pass Ben!

2. Write a subject or title for the email.

_____

3. Answer true (T) or false (F). Explain your answer.

☐ The name of the girl who wrote the email is Angy.

_____

☐ The order of a triathlon is: running, biking and swimming.

_____

☐ The girl finished the race faster than her brother.

_____

☐ The girl thinks the race is easy. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS