

Prepositions

of, to, for

1. Write the correct preposition "of", "to", "for":

Today we went ___ play Arcade Games. I played Fight Fighters with Wendy until Robby showed up with the poster ___ his band. Then he pushed me out ___ the way and started to play with Wendy himself. That guy is so annoying he didn't even listen ___ Wendy when she told him about her camping trip. Next day he dared to come ___ the Mystery Shack and ask ___ Wendy. I informed him that Wendy wasn't at the Mystery Shack and told Robbie that he didn't pay attention ___ Wendy. Robbie became angry and threatened me ___ call Wendy and tell her that I liked her. I slapped the phone out of Robbie's hand and broke it. Robbie decided ___ pick a fight and told me ___ meet him at 3 pm in the park. At the beginning I wanted ___ hide and never come to the park. I chose the Arcade as the place ___ hiding. I just had to sit there ___ a few hours. But there I found a way how to bring a character from a video game! It was Rumble McSkirmish. He was famous ___ his fighting skills and I made a plan ___ scaring Robbie away. I wanted Rumble to scare Robbie away with his fighting skills. It almost worked. Robbie was really scared ___ Rumble. But then Rumble ran after Robbie and continued ___ fight with him. Robbie climbed the water tower to get away from Rumble. I stopped Rumble and told him that I lied ___ him and Robbie wasn't my enemy. So I had to enter the fight instead ___ Robbie. I was a bad person now because ___ my lie. I lost this fight but so did Rumble. At least Wendy was happy ___ see us when she returned from camping. So Robbie and I decided to hate each other in secret, like girls do. By the way, I didn't know Stan had the fear ___ heights. I thought Stan was afraid ___ nothing expect not getting enough money from tourists.

Signing off for tonight,
Dipper Pines.