Why not chores for people who live near you? You could tidy up or your neighbors' dogs. You could even stay late and earn money by doing some babysitting while you're doing your homework! You don't to travel into the town center to earn some cash.

If you're great at coding, why not give lessons for kids who aren't as good as you? Or you could help adults who are having problems with their computers or smartphones. You be shy—just ask your neighbors! Then you can start plans for next summer!
