

C Practice Activities

A. Practice - Comprehension. Choose the correct answer

1. What kind of family was the story about? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) rich family b) poor family c) happy family d) famous family 2. Why were the family members unhappy? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) lack of colorful clothes b) lack of food c) lack of joy and happiness d) lack of friends 3. Who decided to do something about their problem? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) the younger brother b) the head of the family c) a neighbor d) a friend 4. What did they do to solve their problem? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) make a garden b) sell the cattles c) Travel to another country d) Buy expensive clothes 5. How did the family's mood change as they worked on the garden? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) They fought with each other. b) They became even more unhappy. c) They ignored each other. d) They became happier. 	6. How did the garden impact the family's relationships? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) brought them closer together b) caused more fights and arguments c) had no impact on their relationships d) made them jealous of each other. 7. According to the story, what is the key to the family's happiness? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) their wealth and possessions b) the love and support from their neighbors c) the beautiful garden they created d) the colorful clothes they wore
--	--

B. Practice - Story Sequencing (A-G)

1. _____ The head of the family selected a piece of land for the garden.
2. _____ The garden transformed the family's mood and brought happiness.
3. _____ The head of the family decided to solve their problem.
4. _____ The garden became the family's most prized possession.
5. _____ Generations later, the garden is still cared for and cherished.
6. _____ The family worked together to prepare the ground and plant.
7. _____ The family was unhappy despite their wealth.