Before you listen. Read the words and match them with definitions.

suicide bombers –	to be a part of some group and other people too
Embassy -	danger, risk
state of emergency –	not to kill, but to hurt
to injure –	aggressive
to belong –	the diplomatic office of one country on the territory of another country
threat –	people who explode a bomb with a plan to kill themselves
militant -	a dangerous situation in a country which is controlled by the government

Now listen to the news report and put the sentences in a correct order.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7

8.

The attack happened near the US Embassy in Tunisia.

Since that time, there is a state of emergency in the country.

It is not clear if the bombers belonged to a terrorist group.

In 2015, there were three big terrorist attacks in Tunisia, and many people died.

On Friday, two suicide bombers drove a motorcycle toward a police truck.

There are two main threats for Tunisia: Al-Qaeda, which is a militant Islamic group and Libyan extremists.

However, Tunisian officials said that it was a terrorist attack.

The explosion killed both bombers and one police officer, and it injured five other people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the gaps with the missing words from the first exercise.

On Friday, two _____ drove a motorcycle toward a police truck. The attack happened near the US _____ in Tunisia. The explosion killed both bombers and one police officer, and it _____five other people.

It is not clear if the bombers _____ to a terrorist group. However, Tunisian officials said that it was a terrorist attack. In 2015, there were three big terrorist attacks in Tunisia, and many people died. Since that time, there is a _____ in the country. There are two main _____for Tunisia: Al-Qaeda, which is a _____Islamic group and Libyan extremists.

Look at the text again. Put the verbs in brackets into Past Simple.

On Friday, two suicide bombers _____ (drive) a motorcycle toward a police truck. The attack _____ (happen) near the US Embassy in Tunisia. The explosion _____ (kill) both bombers and one police officer, and it _____ (injure) five other people.

It is not clear if the bombers _____ (belong) to a terrorist group. However, Tunisian officials _____ (say) that it _____ (be) a terrorist attack. In 2015, there _____ (be) three big terrorist attacks in Tunisia, and many people_____ (die). Since that time, there is a state of emergency in the country. There are two main threats for Tunisia: Al-Qaeda, which is a militant Islamic group and Libyan extremists.

Past Simple

I worked in Thailand in 2010.
I left home when I was 18.

I didn't travel to Europe last year.
I didn't see any interesting places.

Did you visit Grandma last weekends? Yes, I did.
Did you go to the supermarket? No, I didn't.

We were very happy.
I was really tired.

He wasn't home when I called him.
They weren't in China last year.

Were you and your friends in Mexico? Yes, we were No, we weren't
Was she late to work? Yes, she was. No, she wasn't.

Ask 6 questions to the text.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS