Read the passage and answer the questions. No.18-20

On Wednesday, Peter didn't hear his alarm clock. He jumped out of bed, had a shower, and got dressed. He didn't get to the bus stop in time and he missed the bus. He ran back his home and jumped into his car. As he was in a hurry, he forgot his mobile phone. He drove fast, but there was a lot of traffic. He couldn't call his boss, because he didn't have his phone. He drove to his office, but there was no space in the car park, so he had to drive to another car park in town. He saw a space and drove toward it, but another car got there first. Peter shouted at the driver of that car. He drove too fast out into the road and hit another car. Luckily, nobody was hurt, but Peter had to take his car to the garage. He finally arrived at work at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. His boss was angry and Peter was very rude. His boss sacked him and now Peter doesn't have a job.
