

English Review

Comparative and superlative adjectives

REMEMBER!:

- COMPARATIVE: Compare 2 nouns. We add -er to the adjectives with one syllable and more to the adjective with more than one syllable. Example:
 - (tall, One syllable adjective) The giraffe is taller than the mouse.
 - (important, more than one syllable adjective) Studying is more important than playing around.
- SUPERLATIVE: Compare more than 2 nouns. We add -est to the adjectives with one syllable, and the most to the adjectives with more than one syllable. Example:
 - (big, one syllable adjective) The elephant is the biggest animal on earth.
 - (captivating, more than one syllable adjective) Among all the books I've read, 'To Kill a Mockingbird' is the most captivating.

Write the correct adjective in these sentences.

1. Giraffes are _____ than horses. (tall)
2. My pencil case is _____ than yours. (beautiful)
3. Sheep are _____ than goats. (fat)
4. Summer is _____ than winter. (hot)
5. It is _____ movie this week. (boring)
6. Four Season is the _____ hotel in this area. (cheap)
7. I am the _____ person because I've passed the exam.
(happy)
8. This river is _____ of all. (dangerous)
9. Liz is the _____ student I've met. (lazy)
10. Helen's hair is _____ than mine. (dark)