

ENTRANCE EXAM 6 – PART 1 – LISTENING

Exercise 13: You will hear a teacher talking to a group of students about a careers event. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

I know you are preparing for the test on Monday, June 9th. However, because you are final-year students, you need to think about a career, too.

Question 1. So, before term ends, on _____, someone will visit the school, on June 17th to give careers advice.

Question 2. On this day, you will be able to find out about _____. We hope that this will help you choose an interesting career. It is never too early to start thinking about the future!

Question 3. The event will be from 9am to 4pm. From 11am until midday, the first talk will be for anyone interested in _____ and from 2pm until 3pm, the second talk will be about languages.

Question 4. If you would like more details, please speak to Mr Rogers that's R-O-G-E-R-S. He will add your name to a list of those interested in the event. There is also an information sheet _____ the hall that you can take home with you to read.

Exercise 14: You will hear a teacher talking to students about a school play. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

I'm sure you are all looking forward to the school play. This will be at the end of the term, on Monday, December 20th. Tickets will be on sale in the gym during break, until Friday. Adult tickets will cost £3.00 for parents and £4.00 for guests.

Question 1. Children's tickets are £2.00 each but, of course, students who are in the play will _____ for family and friends.

Question 2. We hope that everyone is ready for the play! I think most of you are _____ about it.

Question 3. However, we still need people to help _____. Please speak to Mr. Field, that's F I E L D, if you are interested in helping.

For those of you who will take part in the play, there will be a meeting after school, next week.

Question 4. We still need to decide who will _____. We need people to sell ice cream and drinks before the play starts and others to help tidy up afterwards. I hope that lots of you will want to help.

Well, that's all I want to say for now. Thank you for listening.