

Let's Analyse

Write the nouns of the following verbs or vice-versa

No	Verbs	Nouns
1	Perform
2	Infect
3	Transmit
4	Diagnose
5	Isolate

No.	Verbs	Nouns
6		Protection
7		Screening
8		Treatment
9		Safety
10		Restriction

Write the adjectives of the following verbs or vice-versa

No	Nouns	Adjectives
1	Symptoms
2	Infection
3	Protection
4	Virus
5	Danger

No.	Nouns	Adjectives
6		Traceable
7		Restrictive
8		Microscopic
9		Strategic
10		Preventive

Complete those short paragraphs with the words you have studied

- 1) A _____ Is a _____ living organism, too small to be seen without a _____. It causes _____ disease in animals as well as in human beings. A sudden _____ disease may cause a pandemic to the global population.
- 2) As soon as a person is _____ positive for COVID-19, the person must undergo _____ so that the _____ disease does not _____ to the people surrounding him. This

- _____ measure is taken immediately to _____ the spreading of COVID-19.
- 3) To know whether someone has been infected by COVID-19, a _____ must be done by taking the person's body temperature, then he will be asked if there are any _____ such as high fever, dry cough, shortness of breath and the loss of smell and taste. Then, a PCR test will be _____ on the nasal or throat cavity. If the test is negative, it means that he doesn't have an infection. In turn, when the test is positive, it means that he has an infection.
 - 4) When giving _____ to COVID-19 patients, doctors and paramedical workers must wear Personal _____ Equipment or PPE. PPE consists of special clothing completed with headgear, goggles, masks to _____ them from the COVID-19 virus. The PPE has to be worn once only and destroyed in the incinerator after use.
 - 5) Lockdown is official _____ of movement within or access to an area for the sake of public _____ against COVID-19 disease. Lockdown is one of the _____ steps taken by the governments of the world, even though there is controversy about its implementation.