

FOMO

VOCABULARY: Complete the sentences with the words from the list. Please note that two words are extra and some changes may be necessary.

An outsider / keep up with / miss out on / spread oneself / seemingly / compelling / once-in-a-lifetime / buzz

1. When you experience FOMO, you may feel like _____ if you don't take part in certain activities.
2. This is a _____ opportunity. If you don't take advantage of it, you will regret it in the future.
3. He is learning 3 languages at the same time, but I think he is _____ too thin. He is not doing a good job in any of them.
4. Many people live a _____ perfect life on social media, but the reality is very different.
5. She finds the need to buy the latest cell phones too _____. She just can't avoid it.
6. You definitely can't _____ opportunity. You probably won't have it again.

GRAMMAR: Select the correct option to complete the sentences

1. She didn't take advantage of this great opportunity. I'm not sure, but she _____ another one like this in the near future.
2. Paul went on this trip around the World, but he doesn't earn enough money to do so. He _____ the lottery or something.
3. They were not invited to the party and they are never included in any activity of the group. They _____ like an outsider.
4. Brigitte always succumbs to temptation, but this one time she just didn't. It _____ so compelling after all.
5. I just turned down the job offer, but now I feel like I made a mistake. I don't know for sure, but I'm afraid I _____ out on a great opportunity.
6. John always thinks about the situation before making a decision, so on this occasion, he _____ to this before deciding on such an important thing.

FOMO

VIDEO: Watch the video and select the correct option according to the view the statement is related to: classical, romantic or both.

1. They fear that other people are living the life that is meant to be theirs.
2. They believe that good and ordinary qualities can be both found in the same thing.
3. They fear that they are missing out on simple things like failing to enjoy nature, getting to know their relatives, etc.
4. They believe all the excitement can be concentrated in some specific places or cities.
5. They think that people are divided into two groups: the elect and the mediocre.
6. They believe that the most glamorous things are not always evident or easy to find.
7. They can't put up with being around people who are not ambitious.
8. They experience FOMO