

Determiners: countable and uncountable nouns

Read the following sentences and choose the appropriate determiner to complete them (10pts).

- I'm new in town and I'm not an outgoing person. I have _____ friends at school, but they are not as close as I would prefer. I can count them with a hand.
a) many b) a good deal of c) a few d) few
- I came from a small school at the countryside. There were _____ children in my class. We were a really small group.
a) few b) a small amount of c) little d) a few
- Linda has _____ friends in her class with whom she has a nice relationship. It's a nice group to travel and have fun at parties. They are not that many, but they are very close to each other.
a) a great deal of b) a few c) few d) several
- Because of the new airlines politics, we are not allowed to carry _____ luggage with us.
a) few b) a great amount of c) several d) a little
- There weren't _____ people at the party. It was almost empty.
a) much b) many c) a few d) little
- I haven't got _____ money in my bank account.
a) many b) little c) a few d) much
- Have you got _____ information about the crisis?
a) several b) many c) a few d) some
- The Johnsons need _____ food since they are such an enormous family.
a) many b) lots of c) a few d) much
- There are _____ pens and pencils on my desk. I have lost most of them.
a) much b) little c) a few d) few
- Peter and Chris have got _____ motorcycles, but they haven't got _____ vans.
a) some / little b) a lot of / many
c) little / any d) some / a great deal of

