

1 Look and write sentences using some or lots of.

1

2

1 I'd like some cheese, please.

2 I'd like _____, please.

3

4

3 _____

4 _____

2 Order and write the questions.

1 some / you / Would / eggs? / like

Would you like some eggs?

2 Would / you / lot / like / of / a / ice cream?

3 mangoes? / you / lot / of / like / Would / a

4 bread? / you / Would / some / like

3 Look and write the questions using some or a lot of.

1

1 Would you like some mushrooms?

2

2 _____

3

3 _____

4

4 _____

2 Read and complete the dialogue.

Josh: Good evening. What (1) would you like, Madam?

Grandma: I'd (2) _____ a pizza and a salad,

Josh: What (3) _____ you _____ on your pizza?

Grandma: I (4) _____ tomato sauce, cheese _____ mushrooms,

Josh: And what (5) _____ you _____ in your salad?

Grandma: I don't know!

Josh: (6) _____ you _____ tomatoes and spinach?

Grandma: I prefer carrots to spinach. I (7) _____ tomatoes and carrots,

Josh: Would (8) _____ like _____ olives?

Grandma: No, (9) _____.

1 Order and write the sentences.

1 I / sweet / to / savoury / prefer / food / food.

I prefer savoury food to sweet food.

2 Ravi / spicy / prefers / food / plain / food. / to

3 Do / prefer / or / food? / crunchy / you / soft

4 Which / prefer? / do / you / tomatoes? / Mushrooms / or

5 Would / some / you / like / on / pizza? / cheese / your

6 I'd / lots / of / sauce, / like / tomato / please!

2 Look and complete the sentences for you. Use the words in the box.

like don't like spicy crunchy soft plain savoury sweet cheese chilli onions spinach sweetcorn

I don't like chilli. It's spicy.

I _____. It's _____.

I _____. They're _____.

I _____. It's _____.

I _____. It's _____.