

Life processes: plants

Complete the blank spaces.

- ✿ Plants use _____, _____ and _____ from the soil to make their own food. This process is called _____.
- ✿ They absorb water and nutrients through their _____.
- ✿ The water and nutrients travel up the _____ to the _____.
- ✿ Most plants reproduce by making _____ that grow into new plants. These seeds grow inside the _____ or _____ of the plant.
- ✿ Other plants produce _____ to reproduce.
- ✿ Plants react to their environment but they _____ from place to place.
- ✿ They grow towards the _____ and their roots grow towards _____.
- ✿ Some plants open and close their _____ and _____, and some plants _____.

Life processes: plants

2. Answer the questions about parts of a plant.

Roots

leaves

stem

flowers

a. Which part of a plant absorbs water and minerals from the ground?

b. Which part of a plant absorbs carbon dioxide and sunlight to make food?

c. Which part of a plant produces seeds?

d. Which part of a plant transports water and minerals from the roots to the leaves?
