

Story 2: The Fox without a tail

Name: _____ No. _____ Group: _____

Comprehension Questions

1. What happened to the Fox in the story? A. It made friends with other animals. B. It lost its tail in a trap. C. It became the leader of the Foxes. D. It found a new home in the forest. 2. Why did the Fox Without a Tail stay away from other Foxes? A. It found a better place to live. B. It didn't like other Foxes. C. It wanted to catch more prey. D. It was scared of being laughed at. 3. What did the Fox Without a Tail plan to do? A. Find a new tail in the forest. B. Call a meeting of all the Foxes. C. Leave the tribe and live alone. D. Seek help from humans. 4. What did the Fox Without a Tail suggest the other Foxes do? A. Grow longer and bushier tails. B. Hunt together as a team. C. Cut off their tails for safety. D. Play tricks on humans. 5. How did the other Foxes react to the Fox Without a Tail's advice? A. They laughed and made fun of it. B. They immediately cut off their tails. C. They ignored the advice. D. D) They agreed to follow the advice.	6. What did the old Fox do during the meeting? A. Cut off its own tail. B. Smiled and asked it to turn around. C. Laughed and hooted with the others. D. Left the meeting angrily. 7. What happened to the Fox Without a Tail after the meeting? A. It was mocked and jeered at. B. It found a new tail. C. It became the leader of the Foxes. D. It moved to a different forest. 8. What did the Fox Without a Tail realize from the meeting? A. The importance of having a tail. B. The other Foxes wanted to help. C. The danger of living alone. D. The uselessness of its plan. 9. What lesson can be learned from the story? A. It's better to live alone than be laughed at. B. Foxes should always cut off their tails. C. One should not listen to others' advice. D. Trying to change others may lead to being made fun of. 10. Why did the Fox Without a Tail call the meeting? A. To show off its beautiful tail. B. To share a plan to catch prey. C. To warn the other Foxes about tails. D. To request help in finding a new tail.
--	--