

Comprehension

At The Shop

Pete and Sally went to the village shop.

It was midday

They bought jam, bread, cheese and butter.

The shopkeeper put the goods in a bag.

He told them to be careful on the road.

Outside the shop they met their father.

He had come to take them home.

1) What time of the day was it?

evening morning midday twilight

2) Where did Pete and Sally go?

to the market

to the store

to the bakery

to the shop

3) Where did the shop keeper put the goods?

on the shelf

on the counter

in a bag

in a glass case

4) What did Pete and Sally buy?

vegetables

juices

jam, bread, cheese and butter

soft drinks

5) What did the shopkeeper tell them?

to walk home

to be careful on the road to come another day

not to play on the road

6) Who did they see outside?

many people

their teacher

their father

some friends

7) The shop keeper told them to be careful on the road because many people walk on the road.

car drivers drive too fast on the road.

children usually play on the road.

the road has many potholes.

8) Pete's and Sally's father is a strict man

happy man

careful parent

None of the above