

Session 2

After watching the video on modals do the following activities.

1. Rewrite the following sentences using "should", "shouldn't", "must", "don't have to", or "doesn't have to":

1. It's not necessary to spend every moment together in a relationship.

You _____ spend every moment together in a relationship.

2. It's important to respect your partner's feelings.

You _____ (should) respect your partner's feelings.

It's not okay to lie to your friends.

3. You _____ lie to your friends.

It's necessary to communicate with your partner.

4. You _____ communicate with your partner.

It's not necessary to have the same interests as your friend.

5. Your friend _____ have the same interests as you.

2. Choose the correct modal verb.

1. You _____ (should / shouldn't / must) ignore red flags in a relationship.

2. Your friend _____ (should / shouldn't / must) always be there for you.

3. You _____ (don't have to / shouldn't / should) compromise your values for a romantic partner.

4. Your partner _____ (doesn't have to / should / must) like your family.

5. You _____ (should / shouldn't / must) be honest with your partner.

3. Complete the text with a suitable modal verb.

In a romantic relationship, you _____ (recommendation) always be honest with your partner. If you are not honest, the trust between you and your partner will diminish. You _____ (lack of necessity) spend all your time with your partner. Spending time with friends and family can help you maintain your independence and individuality. When your friend comes to you with a problem, you _____ (strong recommendation) listen to them and offer your support. Even if you don't agree with their choices, it's important to show that you care.