

GRAMMAR

COMPARATIVES/SUPERLATIVES

Look at the table and complete the sentences comparing France and Poland. Use the words in brackets.

	France	Poland
Population	64 million people	38 million people
Size	548,000 square km	313,000 square km
Highest mountain	4,810 m (Mont Blanc)	2,499 m (Rysy)
Average temperature (January)	3°C	-3°C
Average temperature (July)	23°C	19°C

- The population in France is bigger than the population in Poland. (big)
- Poland is _____ France. (small)
- Mont Blanc in France is _____ Rysy in Poland. (high)
- In January it is _____ than in France. (cold)
- In July it is _____ than in Poland. (hot)

Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in brackets.

- It's been _____ (cold) winter in thirty years.
- The weather is getting _____ (bad).
- It's _____ (popular) tourist destination in the country.
- It's _____ (cheap) to stay in a bed and breakfast than to stay in a hotel.
- People are working _____ (long) hours than before.
- The summers are much _____ (hot) than they were.
- In the winter, the days are _____ (short).
- This sauce tastes _____ (good) than the other one you made.
- We've been on _____ (long) journey of our lives.
- This is _____ (happy) day of my life!
- It's _____ (funny) programme I've ever watched.
- The exam was _____ (difficult) than I expected.