Name: _____ No.:____ Class: _____

Conversation:

The messy room

Vocabulary :

- mess (n.): a situation in which a place is dirty or not neat (สภาพรกสกปรก)
- cage (n.): a structure made of wires or bars in which birds or animals can be kept (กรง)
- ferret (n.): a small animal, used for hunting rats and rabbits (สัตว์คล้ายพังพอนใช้ล่าหนูหรือกระต่าย)
- Whew! เป็นคำอุทานเวลาได้กลิ่นอะไรเหม็น ๆ หรือเมื่อรู้สึกร้อนเหนื่อย หรือ โล่งอก
- You're grounded เป็นการบอกเด็กว่า "เธอถูกกักบริเวณ" ไม่ให้ออกไปไหนกับเพื่อนเป็นการลงโทษ

About the Conversation

1. What's Luke's room like?

Ans.: _____

2. What does he have to do with his socks?

Ans.: _____

3. How long ago did he put them on?

Ans.: _____

4. When did he last clean Willie's cage?

Ans.: _____

5.What does he have to do today?

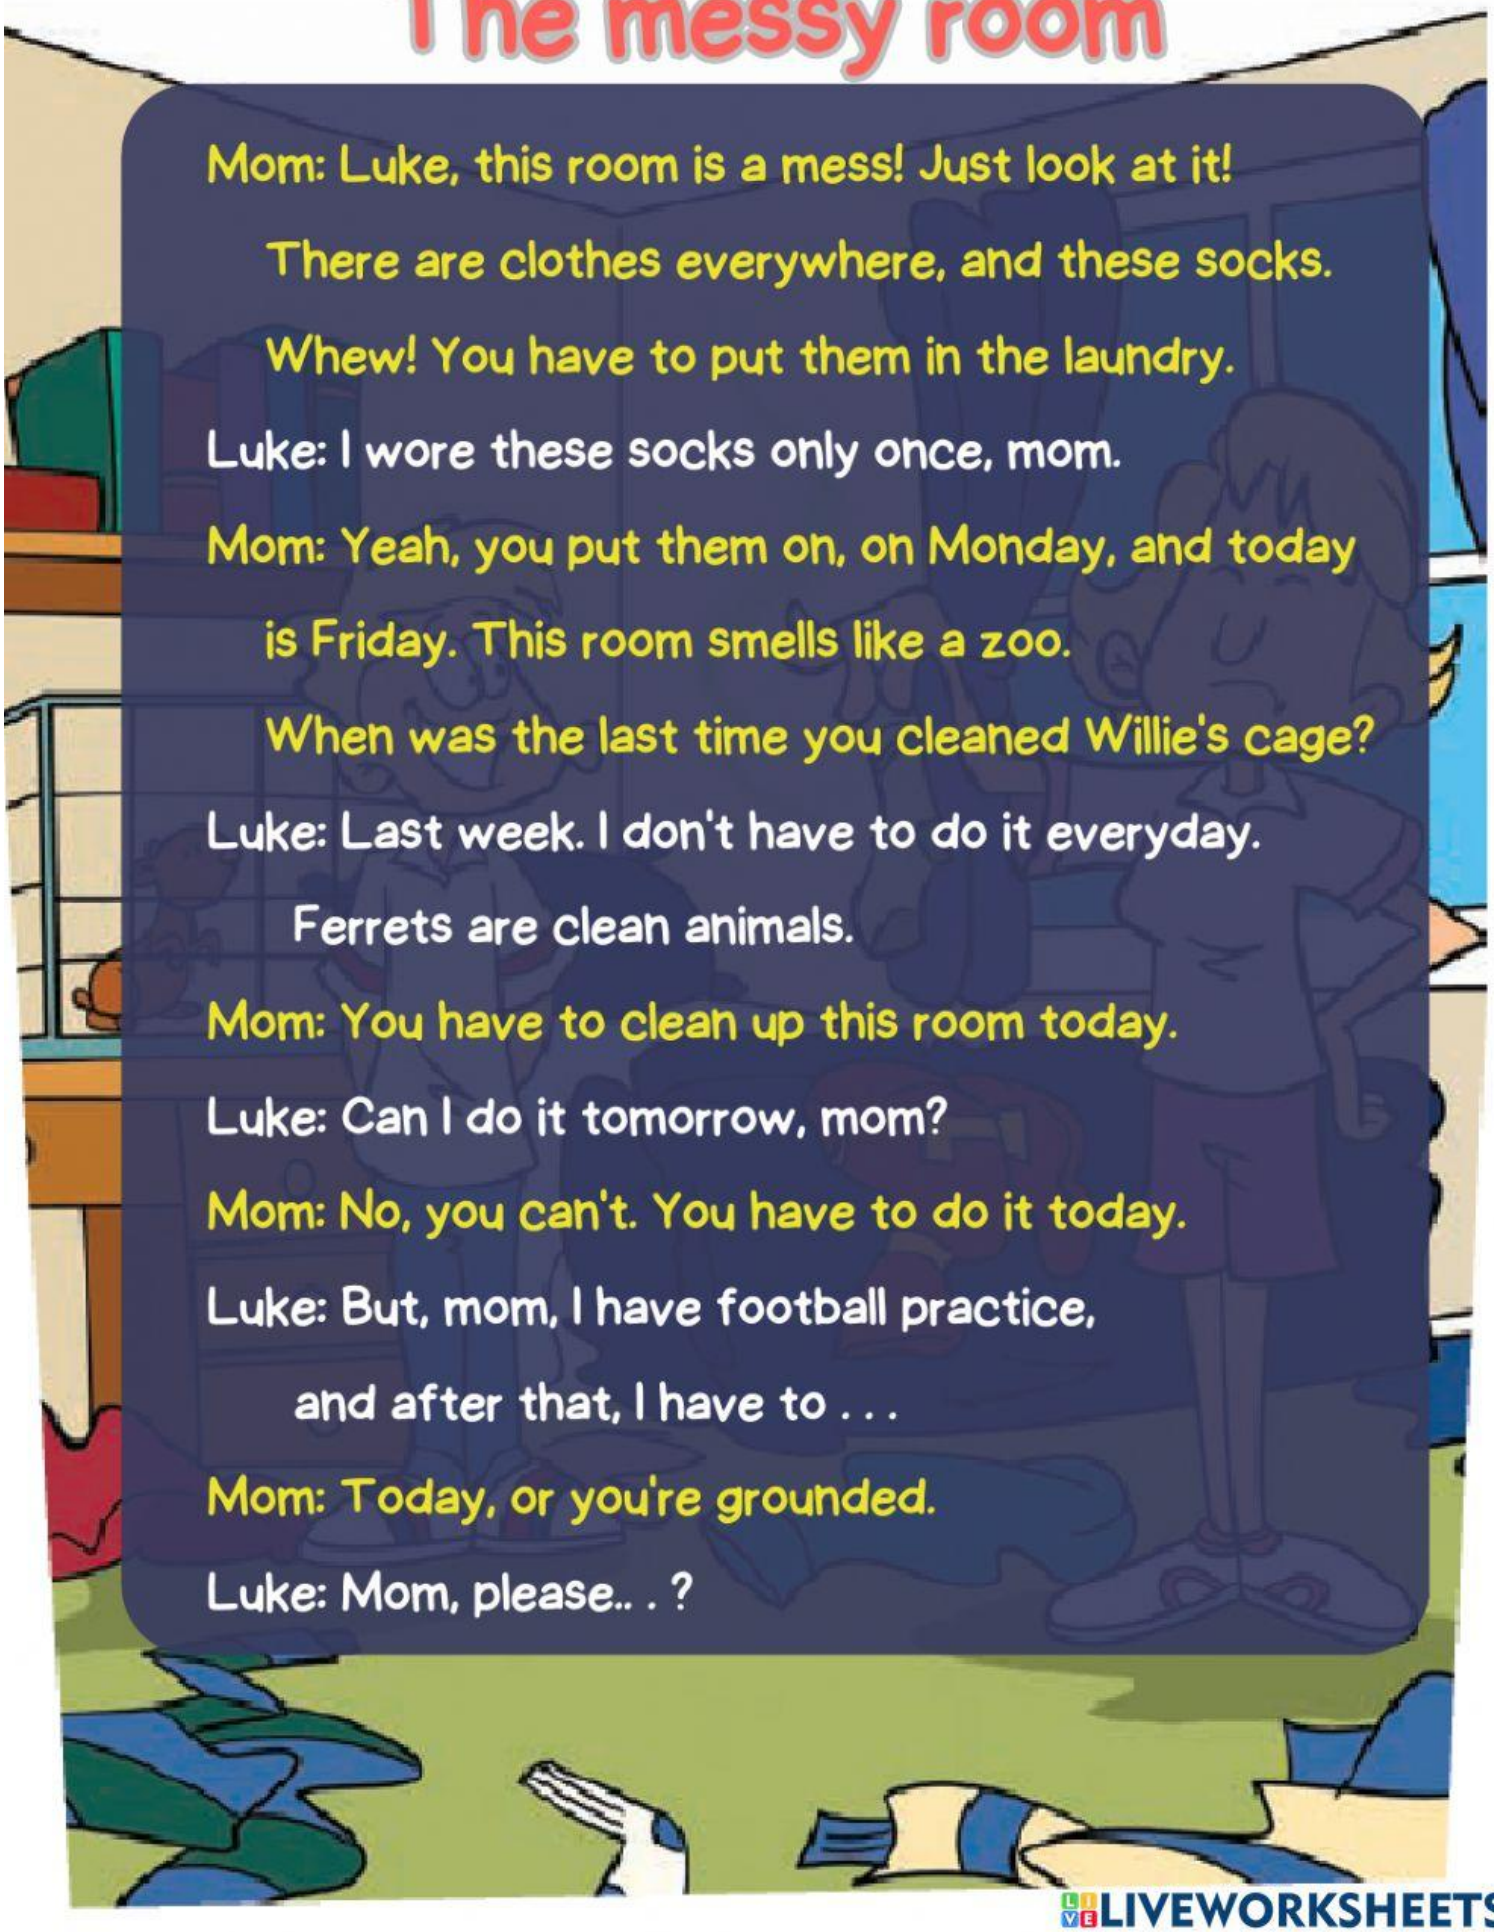

Ans.: _____

6.What will happen if he doesn't?

Ans.: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Conversation:
The messy room

Mom: Luke, this room is a mess! Just look at it!
There are clothes everywhere, and these socks.
Whew! You have to put them in the laundry.

Luke: I wore these socks only once, mom.

Mom: Yeah, you put them on, on Monday, and today is Friday. This room smells like a zoo.
When was the last time you cleaned Willie's cage?

Luke: Last week. I don't have to do it everyday.
Ferrets are clean animals.

Mom: You have to clean up this room today.

Luke: Can I do it tomorrow, mom?

Mom: No, you can't. You have to do it today.

Luke: But, mom, I have football practice,
and after that, I have to . . .

Mom: Today, or you're grounded.

Luke: Mom, please.. . ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS