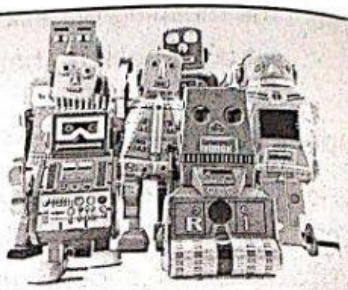
Learning Buffet



There are so many wonderful things for us to learn,
Amazing courses at every turn,
Art, robotics and gardening too,
Surely there's something that interests you!

There are so many things you want to learn but so little time to do so. We understand. That's why we've decided to put all of these wonderful courses under one (online) "roof", just for YOU. Now you don't have to travel from place to place, whether it's to ask about the courses or to attend any of these courses. Complete them all in the comfort of your own home. In addition, you get to enjoy super savings if you sign up for more than one course with us! There are simply too many reasons for you to sign up with Learning Buffet.

Note: All courses will be conducted on a video conferencing platform. Participants will need suitable equipment and a conducive learning environment.

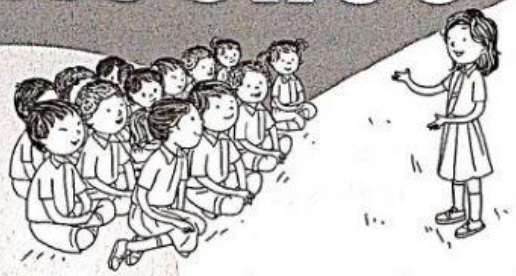
Speak-fidence

Delfi Primary Prefectorial Board presents ...



As prefects, we are often tasked to speak to our fellow pupils. We communicate important information to them, rally them to action, or simply give clear instructions. Whatever the objective is, we often address groups of people as we carry out our role as prefects. That is why the Prefectorial Board is organising a Public Speaking Boot Camp to help us improve our communication skills.

To help us become better speakers, we have engaged the services of Sapling Training Institute (STI). The trainers from STI are extremely experienced in conducting such training camps. They have conducted this programme in more than 50 schools over the last five years. Their trainers are also very passionate and knowledgeable. These are the profiles of the trainers who will be guiding us at the Public Speaking Boot Camp:

Trainer: Mr Ishak Shahril

Profile: Mr Shahril is a highly experienced trainer in public speaking. Not only has he conducted this programme more than 30 times, he has also trained other trainers (including Ms Jacintha and Mr Philippe) to conduct the boot camp! As the grandmaster, it is no surprise that Ishak often appears as a judge for public speaking or debating competitions. We are privileged to have him here as a teacher and not a judge. He will teach us how to be better speakers!

Specialisation: Body Language

Trainer: Ms Jacintha Primalani

Profile: Ms Primalani's voice is very recognisable because she has been a radio deejay for more than 15 years. You will be abe to identify that silky smooth voice when you hear it. You may also have heard her voice behind famous cartoon characters such as Bleety Sheep and Curious Cat. When you stop being starstruck, be mesmerised by the skills that Jacintha will impart!

Specialisation: Voice Control

Trainer: Mr Philippe de Asis

Profile: Philippe has extensive experience as a public speaker, having worked as an event host for more than a decade. The stage lights up once he steps on it. Watch as Mr de Asis maintains excitement and energy throughout the event, whether it is a 30-minute party or a 5-hour marathon. He believes that his flair is not natural, but developed, as he was very shy when he was young. Philippe is excited to share what he has learnt over the years with all of you!

Specialisation: Stage Presence

( )

Purpose of Punctuation

3 Why does the word "Speak-fidence" have a hyphen in it?

(1) The hyphen makes the word look more stylish.
(2) It is a combination of two words "Speak" and "Confidence".
(3) The word is too long so it should be broken up into smaller parts.
(4) The two letters "k" and "f" can never be beside each other so we need a hyphen.

( )

Explanation Answer

4 How do we know that Mr Ishak Shahril is the most experienced trainer in this programme?

(1) He is the oldest among the three.
(2) He has conducted this programme in more than 50 schools.
(3) He often appears as a judge in public speaking competitions.
(4) He taught the other two trainers how to conduct this programme. ( )
