

Editing for Spelling +
Grammar

The Write Tribe

Practice 26

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Lola had a very packed schedule. She had an English group project that was due the next day. There were four members in the group. They each had a different sagment to prepare. Lola was in charge of the saction called 3.

1.

2.

'A Learning Nation'. It was about the educate system in Singapore.

4.

Lola had started on her prepare two weeks ago. However, school had 5.

6.

been especially haktic last week. She had multipal assignments and topical 7.

tests throughout this past week. As a result, she had niglakted her English presentation. Now, Lola was pressed for time. She spent her entire evening working on the presentation intensive. She did not want to be the cause of 9.

8.

her group's bad perform. Immediately after dinner, she sat herself down at her study table and focused on her work.

10.

After a gruling three hours, Lola eventually completed her work. She 11.

had not glance at her phone at all the whole time. Then, she noticed a text message from her group mate informing her that the project deadline had 12.

been extend. She groaned in exasperation.

Practice 27

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Have you watched films like 'Beauty and the Beast' and 'Frozen'?

1.

They are examples of popular films that we watch in thiatres with friends and family today.

2.  3.

The history of film dates as far back to the 1890s. That was where the birth of picture cameras and film production companies took place.

4.

However, due to limiteishens in technology back then, films made were less than a minute long. They were also sailunt, made without sound or colour.

5.

6.

7.

The pluts of the movies were simple. They were mainly based at everyday life, a public event or a sporting event.

8.

In 1900, the first motion pictures that were qualify to be called films were produced. By this time, the cinema had become an established entertain industry. Films were now at least savurel minutes long. They also 11.

9.

10.

featured interesting storylines. More film companies were set up to kater to the increase in demand for films.

12.

Over the years, the film industry has become a thrive one. Some films earn millions of dollars or more at the cinemas. It appears that audiences all over the world still continue to be fascinated by the stories told through moving pictures.

Practice 28

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

1.

Peggy was quiet by nature. She was generally an exemplery pupil in school. She was punctual in handing in all her assign. She was very 3.

2.

well behaved and respectful on the staff in the school. This included the canteen vandors as well as the cleaning staff. In class, Peggy was very diligent and feucused. She was well liked by pupils and teachers.

4.

5.

6.

One day, Peggy's teacher wanted to have a word about her. At first,

7.

Peggy was aprehensive. She thought that she had done something wrong.

8.

She was mistake. Her teacher merely wanted to inform her that she had 9.

10.

been select to receive the 'Model Pupil' award. Peggy was pleasant surprised to hear this piece of good news.

11.

On the day of the award ceremany, both of Peggy's parents attended the event. They were so proud of Peggy. They knew that Peggy was very shy.

They did not think that she would stand out from the other pupils. Peggy's 12.

teacher congratuleted her on her award. Peggy felt on top of the world.