

THE FUTURE

WILL - Spontaneous decisions. Don't worry! I will help you! - Predictions (with NO evidence) I will be rich I think they'll go to your party - Promises, offers and threats. Don't worry. I won't tell her. I won't say anything, I promise! I will study tomorrow.	BE GOING TO - For plans and intentions I'm going to study English this afternoon - Predictions WITH evidence It's cloudy. It is going to rain.
PRESENT CONTINUOUS - For fixed arrangements My grandma is visiting us next week. My brother is playing football with his friends tonight.	PRESENT SIMPLE - Dates, timetable The plane arrives at 18.00 tomorrow. The lesson starts at nine every day

ACTIVITY. Complete the sentences using will, be going to, present continuous or present simple

- I _____ (visit) my grandmother at the weekend.
- Wait! I _____ (drive) you to the station!
- The baby _____ (fall) down. He doesn't walk very well.
- I think they _____ (win) the football match.
- The museum _____ (close) at 5 pm.
- Look at Paul! He _____ (get) on the bus.
- What a dark cloud! It _____ (rain).
- They _____ (buy) a new car next month.
- It's very hot here! I _____ (open) the door!
- I can't go to your house on Sunday. I _____ (meet) my friends.
- She _____ (have) a baby.
- We _____ (interview) someone for the job tomorrow at 9 am.
- They _____ (take) the train to Glasgow at 10:30.
- Listen! The phone is ringing. I _____ (answer) it.
- The film _____ (start) at 7:30.
- You look hot. I _____ (open) the window.