

Conjunctions

before, after, while, until, or, but, and, so, because before = happens first - "I had a shower before breakfast."

after = happens second - "I went to school after I ate breakfast."

while = happens at the same time - "I ate popcorn while watching a film."

until = happens up to another thing starting - "I lived in India until I was 7."

or = to give a choice - "Would you like an apple or an orange?"

but = to show the opposite - "I want pizza but my sister wants a burger."

and = to add something - "I want to go to the park and the funfair."

so = to give the result of something - "I was sick so I didn't go to school."

because = to give a reason - "I came home from the park because it was raining."

I went to bed early _____ I was tired.

Mum asked me to take the dog for a walk _____ I went to school.

The bus was late _____ I was late for school.

Would you like chocolate _____ strawberry ice-cream?

My friends Tom _____ Peter are coming to my house.

Can I go to the park _____ I have helped with the cleaning?

The man hurt his ankle _____ playing tennis.

You can read your book _____ 10 o'clock.

Mary wanted to go on holiday _____ she had to work.